

204-238 Lowerhouse Lane

204-238 Lowerhouse Lane, Burnley, Lancashire, BB12 6LP

Row of 18 cottages, Nos 218 and 220 now a shop, c1820-30. for Dugdale's Lowerhouse Mill. Watershot coursed sandstone (No.234 painted), stone slate roofs (except No.222 and Nos 228 to 232 which are Welsh slate).

Long rectangular double-depth plan, each cottage single-fronted with 2 low storeys, one window each, with a continuous square-cut gutter cornice; doorways to the right, all with plain surrounds but chamfered lintels (except Nos 218 and 220 which have altered surrounds), those to Nos 234 and 236 lower than the others, and all with recessed altered doors and overlights;

Windows have raised sills and rectangular lintels, all now with altered glazing; and corniced stone chimneys on the ridge (except No.204 which has a cut-down gable chimney and No.206 which has an altered chimney), part of early industrial colony at Lowerhouse, forming a group with Nos 2-22 Lowerhouse Fold opposite.
