

305, 306 & 308 Lowerhouse Lane

305, 306 And 308 Lowerhouse Lane, Burnley, Lancashire, BB12 6LZ

Row of 3 cottages, probably late 18th century or very early 19th century.

Coursed squared sandstone rubble with large quoins (No.304 rendered), stone slate roof with late 19th century brick chimneys. Rectangular double-depth plan, each cottage single-fronted. 2 low storeys, 1+1+1 windows; doorways to the right with monolith jambs and lintels which are plain except for small stopped chamfer, and all with recessed 20th board doors; 4-pane sashed windows at ground floor, and low oblong 8-pane sashes immediately under the eaves (which oversail).

INTERIOR: Surprising for such humble dwellings, No.304 has a complete cellar in 2 rooms, to the rear with stone keeping slabs; others may have similar cellars.

Forms group with Nos 274-298 adjoining to the left, and Nos 295-317 on the opposite side of the road.
